

10.3_D Possible answers

	Advantages	Disadvantages
1. overdraft arrangement	would not rely on favours easier to obtain	likely to pay high interest rates will face penalties if payments are late
2. government start-up loan	would pay lower interest rates than 1 would have a longer repayment period than 1	might have to comply with requirements might not be available at the time of need
3. venture capitalist	would not have repayments to make would receive expert business support	would usually hand over a part of their stake in the company they are usually only interested in profit, so using them may mean having to compromise on other priorities
