

2.1_E

Word	Meaning in tourism	Meaning in general English	Word family accommodation /ə,kəmə'deɪʃn/budget /'bʌdʒɪt/
departure /dɪ'pɑ:tʃə(r)/ development /dɪ'veləpmənt/environment /ɪn'vaɪrənmənt/experience /ɪk'spiəriəns/itinerary /aɪ'tɪnərəri/
lobby /'lɒbi/
luxury /'lʌkʃəri/
resort /rɪ'zɔ:t/
transport /'trænspɔ:t/

2.1_E

Answers

Word	Meaning in tourism	Meaning in general English	Word family
accommodation /ə,kəmə'deɪʃn/	(n) [U] somewhere for a visitor to stay in exchange for payment, often also providing food or other services	(n) [C] a place to stay	accommodate (v) [T]
budget /'bʌdʒɪt/	(adj) low in price	(n) [C/U] money available and a plan of how it will be spent (v) [T/I] to be careful about the money you spend	– departure /dɪ'pɑ:tʃə(r)/	(n) [C] a plane, train, etc., leaving a place at a specific time	(n) [C/U] the act of leaving a place	depart (v) [T/I] development /dɪ'veləpmənt/	(n) [U] the growth of the economy of a country or region due to an activity	(n) [U] the constant growth of something	develop (v) [T/I] developing (adj)
environment /ɪn'vaɪrənmənt/	(n) [C/U] the natural world where people, animals and plants live	(n) [C/U] the conditions in which someone or something lives	environmental (adj) experience /ɪk'spɪəriəns/	(n) [C] an event that affects you (v) [T] to live a particular situation that changes you	(n) [U] knowledge you have gained through doing something	experiential (adj)
itinerary /aɪ'tɪnərəri/	(n) [C] a travel plan, including route and places to visit	–	itinerant (adj)
lobby /'lɒbi/	(n) [C] a large entrance to buildings such as hotels	(n) [C] a group that tries to influence politicians on a given topic	–
luxury /'lʌkʃəri/	(adj) a service that is expensive and considered superior in quality	(n) [U] having expensive things	luxurious (adj)
resort /rɪ'zɔ:t/	(n) [C] a place where lots of people go on holiday	(n) [C] an often unpleasant solution when nothing else is possible	–
transport /'trænspɔ:t/	(n) [U] a system of vehicles, such as buses, trains, planes, etc., for getting from one place to another (v) [T] to take somebody from one place to another in a vehicle	(n) [C] a vehicle	transporter (n) [C]