My recommendation is that the design as shown in Photograph A should go into production. My opinion is based on personal preference but also on a number of other points. Firstly, in order to maximize our visitor numbers we need to bear in mind the younger market. The development of this market is important for the success of this theme park. In the case of this design, the speed and challenge of the ride are very attractive for younger people. In addition to / As well as this, the construction process is not complex.
